City of Chicago Department of Law (Chicago, IL)

Position Type: Full-time

Geographic Preference: Midwest (KY, WV, OH, IN, MI, IL, MO, IA, MN, WI)

Description: The City of Chicago Department of Law is hiring. Please share the following job opportunity with your alumni. Additional information can be found within the actual posting at www.cityofchicago.org/careers. Applications must be submitted in accordance with the posting below. No email applications will be accepted.

The City of Chicago is a diverse organization and welcomes diverse applicants.

DEPARTMENT OF LAW – Assistant Corporation Counsel,
Employment Litigation Division

Number of Vacancies: 1

The City of Chicago Law Department is seeking an attorney for the position of Assistant Corporation Counsel (ACC) in its Employment Litigation Division. The Employment Litigation Division defends the City of Chicago and public officials against allegations of discrimination as well as other civil rights and employment law violations brought by prospective, current, and former employees.

Division ACCs practice in federal court as well as in state court. The Division handles sophisticated and complex litigation matters (including class actions) that involve extensive motion practice, intensive discovery, settlement negotiations, and trials.

The following information should not be considered exhaustive. Interested applicants should read the full posting found at www.cityofchicago.org/careers (Job Number: 288339).

Qualifications

Graduation from an American Bar Association (ABA) accredited law school with a Juris Doctor degree in or before 2010, and admission to the Illinois Bar (or eligible for admission on motion to the Illinois Bar pursuant to Illinois Supreme Court Rule 705).

Knowledge, Skills and Abilities:

Ideal candidates will possess the following:

- a minimum of five years of experience in federal and/or state court litigation, preferably in employment litigation;
- experience with trials and drafting pleadings;
- experience with motion practice and presenting oral arguments;
- experience conducting discovery and taking/defending depositions;
- negotiation and settlement experience;
- exceptional research skills;
- superior writing and communication skills;
- the ability to work well with others;
- demonstrated history of exhibiting leadership and initiative on assigned tasks;
- the ability to organize, prioritize, monitor and control workflow deadlines; and
- demonstrated history of good judgment.

Application Process and Materials

There is a two-step application process for this position. All application materials are due on or before July 27, 2017.

Step One: You must submit an on-line application along with your resume at www.cityofchicago.org/careers by July 27, 2017.

Step Two: In addition to the on-line application, and regardless of whether such materials were uploaded with your on-line application, the following materials must be submitted in hard copy to City of Chicago Department of Law's Legal Recruiter, 30 North LaSalle Street, Suite 1640, Chicago, IL 60602:

- Cover letter that (1) includes the position title and job number as noted on the posting; and (2) specifically identifies how you meet the minimum qualifications and have the knowledge, skills, and abilities listed below;
- Resume;
- Law school transcript (official or unofficial);
- Two writing samples; and
- Current printout from the Illinois ARDC website at www.iardc.org (or your admitted state bar's equivalent).

Failure to submit all materials will result in your application not being considered for the position.

NOTE: The foregoing materials must be submitted in person (interoffice delivery of application materials will not be accepted) or received via U.S. Mail or another similar mailing method (e.g., FedEx, UPS, DHL) at the address noted above on or before July 27, 2017; late submissions shall result in your application not being considered for the position. Should you wish to confirm receipt of your materials, please use a traceable delivery method.

NOTE: Please do not submit references with your hard copy materials. Please do not send to us any materials other than those we have specifically requested above. Submission of references and/or additional materials with your hard copy materials other than what is specifically requested above shall result in your application not being considered for the position. Please note that the submission deadline for both the online application and the hard-copy materials is July 27, 2017.

NOTE: Please note that due to the volume of applications we receive, the Recruiting and Personnel Sections in the Department of Law are not able to take or return emails or phone calls seeking any information pertaining to the position or the process. Only those applicants selected for an interview will be contacted.

Thank you for your interest in the City of Chicago Department of Law.

Staff Attorney - CLS Housing Unit

Community Legal Services of Philadelphia (CLS) (Philadelphia, PA)

Position Type: Full-time

Geographic Preference: Northeast (ME, NH, VT, MA, CT, RI, NY, NJ, PA)

Description:

Staff Attorney—CLS Housing Unit

Community Legal Services (CLS) of Philadelphia is seeking an attorney in its Housing Unit. CLS is one of the leading legal services programs in the country. This exciting and demanding position is for a lawyer to represent clients in public housing and private landlord-tenant matters. This position primarily entails zealous representation of a significant number of individual clients each week in court and administrative hearings. The position also entails helping to identify systemic issues and engaging in systems and policy advocacy work in consultation with the managing attorney. The staff attorney will also have housing related intake duties, project management and supervision of staff and interns as needed.

Lawyers in the Housing Unit zealously represents private, public, and subsidized housing tenants in matters involving eviction, illegal lockouts, fair housing violations, termination or loss of subsidy, and substandard housing. Representation includes all the elements of litigation including client interviewing, investigation, discovery, identifying and preparing witnesses and exhibits, pleadings, briefs, and representation at hearings at trial level and appellate levels as appropriate.

Lawyers will also be expected to provide supervision and support to paralegals, social workers, and interns who are providing advice, brief service, and some representation.

Lawyers in Housing Unit also engage in non-litigation focused advocacy, including policy, administrative and legislative advocacy, as well as organizing and teaching community and professional education sessions on a variety of issues, including lead paint elimination, domestic violence, criminal records and barriers, federal housing policy changes, tenant eviction laws etc.

Lawyers in Housing unit also work with the Managing Attorney and other attorneys in the Unit to establish connections to community and government agency partners and to develop impact advocacy strategies to remove barriers to housing and general access to the courts for low-income individuals and families.

We seek applicants with the following qualifications:

- Litigation and trial advocacy experience strongly preferred
- Minimum of 2-5 years of housing and/or litigation experience preferred
- Ability and interest in zealously representing a significant number of tenants in court and administrative hearings
- Ability to manage a significant caseload of individual clients with both public and private landlord-tenant matters
- Excellent legal analysis skills
- Excellent work ethic, organization, and communication skills
- Excellent legal research and writing skills
- Excellent oral advocacy skills
- Experience and interest in policy and others forms of advocacy
- Possess sound professional and legal judgment
- Supervisory experience preferred but not required
- Experience and ability to work with low-income and vulnerable individuals

- Illustrate a high level commitment to racial justice advocacy
- Fluency in another language helpful, but not required

To Apply: CLS will accept applications on a rolling basis until the position has been filled. You can submit your application on CLS's website online at: <https://clsphila.org/about-cls/available-positions/>

What to Include in your application:
Please include a cover letter, resume, three professional references and one brief writing sample (10 pages or less). Community Legal Services values a diverse work environment and strongly encourages women, people of color, people who identify as LGBTQ, and people with disabilities to apply. CLS invites all applicants to include in their cover letter a statement about how your unique background and/or experiences might contribute to the diversity, cultural vitality, and perspective of our staff and legal services practice.

This is a full-time position covered by the collective bargaining agreement between Community Legal Services, Inc. (CLS) and the Philadelphia Legal Services Union N.O.L.S.W./Local 2320/UAW. The current minimum starting salary is governed by that agreement and is subject to change according to the provisions of the current collective bargaining agreement. Raises and benefits are also governed by that agreement.

Community Legal Services, Inc. is an equal opportunity employer. CLS, Inc. does not discriminate in the selection of employees on the basis of race, color, religion, gender, sexual orientation, sexual identity, genetics, age, national origin, disability, or veteran status. In addition to federal law requirements, CLS complies with all applicable state and local laws governing nondiscrimination in employment. This policy applies to all terms and conditions of employment, including recruiting, hiring, placement, promotion, termination, layoff, recall and transfer, leaves of absence, compensation and training.

One Year Fellowship

Legal Services Center of Harvard Law School

Position Type: Fellowship

Geographic Preference: Northeast (ME, NH, VT, MA, CT, RI, NY, NJ, PA)

Description: LEGAL SERVICES CENTER OF HARVARD LAW SCHOOL

<http://www.legalservicescenter.org/>

Date Posted: 06/27/2017

Job Type: Legal: Clinical/Academic

Schedule: Long-term & full-time

Experience: Entry Level 0-3 years

Bar membership required: No

Practice Areas: Civil Rights and Civil Liberties, Clinical, Education, Litigation

Job Description

The David Abraham Grossman Fund for Social Justice ("DAG Fund") is pleased to announce that it will award a one-year $50,000 fellowship to start in Fall 2017.

The DAG Fund was founded in 2015 in memory of David Grossman, a Clinical Professor of Law at Harvard Law School and the Director of the Harvard Legal Aid Bureau. The DAG Fund aims to support young lawyers in the pursuit of public interest law, and to encourage young lawyers to engage in community lawyering, whereby they contribute their legal skills to support issues important to the community where they work and in so doing, enhance the community's power.

Applicants should apply for sponsorship with the Legal Services Center of Harvard Law School by sending a resume and email expressing interest to LSC Faculty Director Daniel Nagin at dnagin@law.harvard.edu. LSC's subject-area interests for sponsorship are wide ranging and include consumer, tax, veterans, disability and safety net programs, housing and family law.

Applicants who have graduated from Harvard Law School also have the alternative option of proposing a DAG fellowship with a non-profit sponsor that is not affiliated with Harvard Law School including, but not limited to, the Community Justice Project (Miami), Law for Black Lives, City Life/Vida Urbana (Boston), and JusticeLabs (Baltimore). HLS applicants may also apply with a traditional client-centered nonprofit host so long as the proposed work includes a community lawyering component

Applicants for the fellowship should be law school graduates with 0-3 years of experience and a demonstrated commitment to the public interest. Priority will be given to applicants with 0-1 years of experience.

Salary

$41k - $55k/year

Application Instructions:

Once an applicant has received sponsorship from LSC or another host organization (only applicable to Harvard Law School graduates), the applicant should email their resume; cover letter listing their sponsor and detailing their interest in the fellowship; list of references; and law school transcript to DAGFellow2017@gmail.com. The subject line of the email should include the applicant's name, law school, and year of graduation. Applications must be received by July 25, 2017 to be considered.

DESCRIPTION

Law clerks who serve in the Supreme Court, Appellate Division and Tax Court perform a substantial amount of legal research and prepare extensive memoranda; assist judges in processing emergent motion applications; proofread published opinions in the advance sheets; and maintain chambers' libraries. Trial Court law clerks perform legal research; make recommendations to judges regarding dispositions of motions, both verbally and via written bench memoranda; draft, edit and proofread legal correspondence; maintain chambers libraries; attend and assist with case conferences, motion hearings, trials; and mediate small claims cases. Law clerks to Assignment Judges handle the same work as other trial court law clerks but also assist in processing emergent matters and may assist in vicinage administration.

REQUIREMENTS

Recent graduate of an American Bar Association approved law school (J.D. or LL.M.). Graduation date must be within four years of the start of the clerkship term. U.S. Citizenship, New Jersey Bar membership and New Jersey residency are not requirements. Excellent writing and analytical skills are essential.

HOW TO APPLY

Visit our web-based portal to apply to individual justices and judges beginning June 19, 2017. Access to the portal can be found on the Law Clerk Web Page at www.nicourts.gov/public/lawclerks.html.

Within the portal, you will find descriptions of the work performed by justices and judges, as well as profiles and biographies, hiring timelines, and clerkship availability information for the upcoming term. Applicants will be able to search the portal by judge, location, or court. Judges will indicate whether you may submit electronic applications via the portal.

You may also mail your applications directly to judges' chambers. The Law Clerk Web Page has the most up to date information to assist in preparing your application materials. To request a List of Minority Judges, please contact the Judiciary's Equal Employment Opportunity/Affirmative Action Unit at (609) 815-2915.

It is highly recommended that applicants apply early in the process (but no earlier than June 19th) to increase the likelihood of securing interviews. When preparing your application materials, your cover letter and resume should emphasize skills (legal research, writing, analytical and communication skills, etc.) as well as past work and prior legal experience that relates directly to the law clerk position, and should be tailored to the particular courts to which you are applying. Although GPA is important, judges consider other factors to recognize particular strengths and qualities.

QUESTIONS?

Any questions about the application process may be directed to Kimberly Douglas, Esq., at (609) 815-2915 or kimberly.douglas@njcourts.gov.

The New Jersey Judiciary is an Equal Employment Opportunity/ Affirmative Action employer committed to ensuring an open door to justice. We appreciate your referrals for our judicial clerkships.

SALARY RANGE: $101,268 – $130,000
Salary in this range will be based on a multitude of factors including applicable rules, regulations and guidelines.
OPENING DATE: June 16, 2017
CLOSING DATE: July 10, 2017
DURATION OF APPOINTMENT: Permanent
AREA OF CONSIDERATION: Open to the Public
WORKSITE LOCATION:
Office of the Attorney General
for the District of Columbia
Public Advocacy Division
441 4th Street NW
Washington, DC 20001
NO. OF VACANCIES: One (1)
This position is outside the collective bargaining unit.
DESCRIPTION OF DUTIES: The Office of the Attorney General for the District of Columbia (OAG) is seeking candidates for the position of Section Chief for the Public Integrity Section ("Section") in the Public Advocacy Division ("the Division"). This is a new Division within OAG intended to focus and elevate the Office's affirmative public interest civil litigation practice. Because the Division is new, the Section Chief will help the Deputy to shape the Section and the nature of its work. The Section is one of two in the Division:
The Housing and Community Justice Section, led by the Section's Chief. This Section works with community groups, tenant organizations, and District government agencies to address nuisance properties, litigates cases essential to protecting affordable housing and tenants' rights, and litigates cases to protect residents from other abuses such as wage theft.
The Public Integrity Section, led by the successful candidate. This Section brings enforcement cases against companies and individuals that engage in unlawful commercial activity causing harm to the public or harm to the District Government itself. The Division prosecutes a wide range of cases, including cases seeking damages or injunctive relief for violations of the antitrust, environmental, anti-fraud, nonprofit, and charities laws.
Recent enforcement actions have addressed a wide range of public interest issues, including diversion of funding from public charter schools, misuse of District grant funds, online lending to consumers, and airline competition at Reagan National Airport.
The Section Chief will oversee the management and operation of the Public Integrity Section and will report to the Assistant Deputy and Deputy of the Public Advocacy Division. The management of the Section also includes creating common policies and exploit synergies between various buckets of affirmative litigation already practiced, as well as to expand upon the work already done by these attorneys in a manner that serves the public interest. The Section Chief will work closely with the Deputy and Assistant Deputy in the planning, coordination and management of the Division, including developing and implementing the vision for the Division's affirmative civil litigation work. The responsibilities of the Section Chief include, but are not limited to:

- Helping to expand the Section, developing its policies, practices, and procedures, including:
  - o Consulting with the Assistant Deputy and Deputy in the formulation of the section's legal and policy objectives;
  - o Incorporating best practices from the affirmative litigation groups of other state attorney general offices;
  - o Developing practices that encourage testing novel legal strategies or categories of cases that seek to promote the public interest; and
  - o Developing policies, including internal procedures as well as potential regulation or legislation, to strengthen existing protections for District residents.

- Managing the litigation work of the Section, including:
  - o Establishing litigation priorities;
  - o Supervising the litigation practice of the Section, including all aspects of civil actions, investigations, negotiations, and resolutions;
  - o Reviewing pleadings, motions, memoranda, and correspondence;
  - o Reviewing litigation outcomes to determine when appellate review may be needed; and
  - o Generating monthly case reports and other evaluative tools to the Assistant Deputy and Deputy.

- Managing the operations of the Section, including:
  - o Preparing annual budget requests and performing ongoing programmatic monitoring and reporting;
  - o Managing personnel, including support staff, in a manner that encourages professional development, employee satisfaction, and quality outcomes; and
  - o Otherwise managing the operation of the Section in compliance with OAG policies and procedures to ensure timely delivery of legal services on a daily and long-range basis.

- Other duties associated with leading the Section, including:
  - o Advising the Attorney General on legal issues within the Public Advocacy arena;
  - o Fielding complaints from the public;
  - o Handling public speaking requests, press, and media inquiries;
  - o Participating in relevant work groups or OAG special projects, continuing legal education, and other opportunities to expand or inform the Section's work;
  - o Coordinating with other OAG Divisions on joint enforcement or other opportunities; and
  - o Liaising, as needed, with members of the District of Columbia Council, members of the Executive, and other District officials on matters pertaining to the work of the Section.

QUALIFICATIONS: The candidate must have significant experience supervising legal work, including the day-to-day activities of attorneys and support staff as well as strong organizational skills. The candidate should have at least 5 years of civil litigation experience, preferably in affirmative or otherwise public interest litigation, and excellent oral and writing skills. The candidate should also have a creative orientation toward the law and bring innovative thinking to the ways in which OAG can expand its work to meet the needs of District residents.

ELIGIBILITY: The successful candidate must have a law degree and be an active member in good standing of the bar of any jurisdiction. If not a member of the District of Columbia Bar, the candidate must be sworn into the District of Columbia Bar within 360 days of his/her initial appointment with the Office of the Attorney General for the District of Columbia.

OTHER INFORMATION: The selected candidate will be subject to a background investigation including reference checks.

HOW TO APPLY: Candidates should e-mail one PDF file which includes: 1) a cover letter (must include the vacancy number) summarizing why you are interested and the skills and abilities you possess that will enable you to succeed in this position; 2) résumé; 3) list of three references; and 4) a writing sample to OAG.RecruitmentAttorney@dc.gov by 11:59pm of the closing date indicated above, addressed to Arlyntha Love, Office of the Attorney General for the District of Columbia, 441 4th Street NW, Washington, DC 20001.

PRIORITY CONSIDERATION: Displaced Employee Priority Placement: Candidates who are eligible for the District of Columbia's Displaced Employee Program (DEP) and Agency Reemployment Priority Placement Program (ARPP) will be given priority consideration for this position if found qualified.

EMPLOYMENT BENEFITS: Selectee will be eligible for health and life insurance, annual (vacation) and sick leave and will be covered under the District of Columbia government's retirement plan. However, if selectee was previously employed in the District of Columbia's government under an appointment for which he/she was eligible for Civil Service Retirement (CSR), contributions to CSR will resume upon re-employment.

VETERANS' PREFERENCE: Applicants claiming veterans' preference must submit official proof at the time of application.

DRUG-FREE WORKPLACE: Pursuant to the requirements of the Drug-Free Workplace Act of 1998, the individual selected to fill this position will, as a condition of employment, be required to notify his/her immediate supervisor, in writing, not later than five (5) days after conviction of or a plea of guilty to a violation of any criminal drug statute occurring in the workplace.

EQUAL OPPORTUNITY EMPLOYER: All qualified candidates will receive consideration without regard to race, color, religion, national origin, sex, age, marital status, personal appearance, sexual orientation, family responsibilities, matriculation, physical handicap, genetic information or political affiliation.

NOTICE OF NON-DISCRIMINATION: In accordance with the D.C. Human Rights Act of 1977, as amended, D.C. Official Code, Section 2-1401.01 et. seq., (Act) the District of Columbia does not discriminate on the basis of actual or perceived race, color, religion, national origin, sex, age, marital status, personal appearance, sexual orientation, familial status, family responsibilities, matriculation, political affiliation, disability, genetic information, source of income, or place of residence or business. Sexual harassment is a form of sex discrimination which is also prohibited by the Act. In addition, harassment based on any of the above protected categories is prohibited by the Act. Discrimination in violation of the Act will not be tolerated.

Violators will be subject to disciplinary action.

- Assist in the development, design, editing, finalizing, or production of eblast communications
- Help with communication needs for major events (Lobby Day, public hearings, press conferences, legislative fundraiser, gay pride festival, gala, etc.)
- Support efforts to build and manage an online presence for Fairness, helping to ensure that content is engaging, up-to-date, and results in measurable action; develop and manage posting of content for web site and social media.
- Aid in planning public events to further educate the public on issues impacting the LGBTQ community as identified by the Executive Director.
- Assist in advocacy efforts during the West Virginia legislative session.
- Engage in faith community and campus outreach to build support for LGBTQ non-discrimination
- Occasional public speaking

Qualifications

- A few years of experience in communications/marketing and/or relevant academic experience/campus organizing or coordinating political, legislative or activist campaigns preferred.
- Strong written and oral communications skills.
- Familiarity with framing and messaging about LGBTQ people.

- Commitment to Fairness West Virginia’s mission.
- Strong project multi-tasking skills.
- Experience with online organizing and communication.
- Personal enthusiasm and optimism, along with a sense of humor.
- Creativity; results-oriented, self-starting attitude (someone who will proactively offer communications ideas); willingness to work evenings and weekends and travel the state as needed.
- Proficiency with computers: Windows, Microsoft Office, familiarity with design software preferred.

Compensation
Compensation for this full-time position is in the low to mid $30,000’s, but is negotiable based on experience. Benefits include medical and dental insurance (fully paid by employer), and generous vacation, holiday, and sick leave.

Director of Public Service Initiatives (DPSI)

NALP (Washington DC)

Position Type: Full-time

Geographic Preference: Mid-Atlantic (DE, MD, DC, VA)

Description: Annie, Could you please post this on Symplicity for alumni? Thanks!

NALP, a Washington, DC based non-profit legal education association with a staff of 15 professionals, seeks a Director of Public Service Initiatives (DPSI) to provide leadership for all Association public service initiatives.

NALP is dedicated to continuously improving career counseling and planning, recruitment and retention, and the professional development of law students, lawyers, and its members, and NALP is the leading provider of public service career information for its members. The Director of Public Service Initiatives provides leadership for, manages, and oversees all of NALP's public service initiatives, including the PSJD website (www.psjd.org). The Director is the primary staff liaison to NALP's Public Service Section. The Director also cultivates relationships between NALP and other public service-oriented organizations and will represent NALP at relevant programs and events.

Public Service Initiatives

The Director is responsible for coordinating all aspects of NALP's public service programming, including the planning and implementation of the annual PSJD Public Service Mini-Conference, as well as public service programming at NALP's annual education conference. In conjunction with NALP's Public Service Section, the Director is responsible for designing and implementing new initiatives that will fulfill the public service goals established by NALP's Long Range Strategic Plan and NALP's annual business plan.

PSJD (www.psjd.org)

The Director directs all facets of the operation, enhancement, and promotion of NALP's PSJD project, including, but not limited to:

- evaluating evolving PSJD subscriber needs and leading development and enhancement efforts to meet such needs;
- producing public relations materials and directing outreach efforts to increase participation in and use of PSJD among law schools, public service employers, law students, and attorneys;
- developing and leading career search workshops, and producing related materials for law school career professionals and students;
- editing and producing content for the PSJD Blog, and overseeing PSJD's other social media platforms;
- leading PSJD subscriber renewal and retention efforts;
- designing and leading outreach to prospective subscribing schools;
- responding to current and prospective PSJD subscriber inquiries;
- directing annual production of the PSJD Comprehensive Fellowship Guide;
- guiding hiring, training, supervision, and mentoring of the PSJD Fellow and other administrative staff for PSJD;
- managing PSJD's annual budget, in coordination with other NALP staff;
- exploring and identifying potential opportunities for additional funding and/or revenue for PSJD.

NALP Educational Programming, Publications, Research, Technology, and Membership Services

Working in close collaboration with other NALP staff directors, the Director of Public Service Initiatives will assist in the enhancement of existing and the development of new NALP educational programming, publications, research, technology services, and membership services as they relate to the public service-related needs of NALP members, law students, attorneys, and the public service community in general.

Affiliate Relationships

The Director will also be responsible for engaging in outreach to and facilitating NALP's relationships with law-related public service organizations, public service sections of law-related organizations, and the public service community in general. The Director will also represent NALP at external public service-related programs and events that are relevant to the accomplishment of the goals, duties and responsibilities of the position.

Administrative Responsibilities

The Director has responsibility for hiring and supervising a staff that includes the PSJD Fellow, undergraduate and graduate work-study interns, and the PSJD Publications Coordinator (a summer position for a law student). The Director provides primary staff support to the Public Service Section, and to the PSJD Advisory Group, and is expected to work collaboratively with a variety of NALP member volunteers. The Director maintains positive working relationships with supervisors and co-workers and observes confidentiality of organizational and association matters.

Other Responsibilities

The Director of Public Service Initiatives will take on additional projects and responsibilities as assigned by the officers and members of the NALP Board of Directors and NALP senior staff.

The Director of Public Service Initiatives reports to and is evaluated by the Executive Director. Benefits include fully-paid medical and dental insurance coverage, holidays, sick leave, vacation, and a retirement plan. Position is available July 1. This position is based in Washington, DC.

OF VACANCIES: Two (2) This position is in the collective bargaining unit represented by AFGE Local 1403 and you may be required to pay an agency service fee through direct payroll deduction. DESCRIPTION OF DUTIES: The Housing and Community Justice Section of the Public Advocacy Division of the Office of the Attorney General for the District of Columbia (OAG) is seeking a Trial Attorney to focus on wage theft, civil rights, and community justice matters. The Public Advocacy Division investigates and litigates civil cases aimed at protecting the public interest. The Housing and Community Justice Section works with community groups, tenant and worker rights organizations, and District government agencies to identify and address housing and employment law violations in the District. The Section litigates cases to protect residents from drug and gun nuisance properties, dangerous property conditions, and other abuses such as wage theft. OAG has recently gained the authority to take violations of the city's workers' rights laws to court when it finds that doing so is in the public interest. The successful candidate will investigate, develop, and bring wage theft suits against entities that violate the District's wage theft laws. In addition, the successful candidate will contribute to the development of a robust enforcement strategy to deter violations and encourage compliance in target industries. The successful candidate will also help with the other legal and community work of the section and may help OAG expand into the area of protecting the civil rights of District residents. QUALIFICATIONS: A minimum of one year of litigation experience is required. The candidate should have civil litigation experience, as well as excellent analytical, writing and litigation skills. ELIGIBILITY: The successful candidate must have a law degree and be an active member in good standing of the bar of any jurisdiction. If not a member of the District of Columbia Bar, the candidate must be sworn into the District of Columbia Bar within 360 days of his/her initial appointment with the Office of the Attorney General for the District of Columbia. OTHER INFORMATION: The selected candidate will be subject to a background investigation including reference checks.

HOW TO APPLY: Candidates should e-mail one PDF file which includes: 1) a cover letter (must include the vacancy number) summarizing why you are interested and the skills and abilities you possess that will enable you to succeed in this position; 2) résumé; 3) list of three references; and 4) a writing sample to OAG.RecruitmentAttorney@dc.gov by 11:59pm of the closing date indicated above, addressed to Arlyntha Love, Office of the Attorney General for the District of Columbia, 441 4th Street NW, Washington, DC 20001.

PRIORITY CONSIDERATION: Displaced Employee Priority Placement: Candidates who are eligible for the District of Columbia's Displaced Employee Program (DEP) and Agency Reemployment Priority Placement Program (ARPP) will be given priority consideration for this position if found qualified.

EMPLOYMENT BENEFITS: Selectee will be eligible for health and life insurance, annual (vacation) and sick leave and will be covered under the District of Columbia government's retirement plan. However, if selectee was previously employed in the District of Columbia's government under an appointment for which he/she was eligible for Civil Service Retirement (CSR), contributions to CSR will resume upon re-employment.

VETERANS' PREFERENCE: Applicants claiming veterans' preference must submit official proof at the time of application.

DRUG-FREE WORKPLACE: Pursuant to the requirements of the Drug-Free Workplace Act of 1998, the individual selected to fill this position will, as a condition of employment, be required to notify his/her immediate supervisor, in writing, not later than five (5) days after conviction of or a plea of guilty to a violation of any criminal drug statute occurring in the workplace.

EQUAL OPPORTUNITY EMPLOYER: All qualified candidates will receive consideration without regard to race, color, religion, national origin, sex, age, marital status, personal appearance, sexual orientation, family responsibilities, matriculation, physical handicap, genetic information or political affiliation.

NOTICE OF NON-DISCRIMINATION: In accordance with the D.C. Human Rights Act of 1977, as amended, D.C. Official Code, Section 2-1401.01 et. seq., (Act) the District of Columbia does not discriminate on the basis of actual or perceived race, color, religion, national origin, sex, age, marital status, personal appearance, sexual orientation, familial status, family responsibilities, matriculation, political affiliation, disability, genetic information, source of income, or place of residence or business. Sexual harassment is a form of sex discrimination which is also prohibited by the Act. In addition, harassment based on any of the above protected categories is prohibited by the Act. Discrimination in violation of the Act will not be tolerated. Violators will be subject to disciplinary action.

Office of the Attorney General
for the District of Columbia
Public Advocacy Division
441 4th Street NW
Washington, DC 20001
NO. OF VACANCIES: One (1)
This position is in the collective bargaining unit represented by AFGE Local 1403 and you may be required to pay an agency service fee through direct payroll deduction.
DESCRIPTION OF DUTIES: The Public Integrity Unit of the Public Advocacy Division of the Office of the Attorney General for the District of Columbia is seeking a Trial Attorney to handle antitrust and nonprofit and charities law matters. The Public Advocacy Division investigates and litigates civil cases aimed at protecting the public interest. The Public Integrity Unit brings enforcement cases against companies and individuals that engage in unlawful commercial activity causing harm to the public or harm to the District Government itself. The Division prosecutes a wide range of cases, including cases seeking damages or injunctive relief for violations of the antitrust, consumer protection, environmental, anti-fraud, nonprofit, and charities laws. Recent enforcement actions have addressed a wide range of public interest issues, including diversion of funding from public charter schools, misuse of District grant funds, online lending to consumers, and airline competition at Reagan National Airport.
The successful candidate will prosecute a range of public interest cases, with an emphasis on enforcement of District and federal antitrust laws and nonprofits and charities enforcement law. Duties will include: identifying areas for investigation, conducting pre-complaint discovery using compulsory process and informal methods, analyzing complex factual and legal issues, negotiating settlements, preparing matters for litigation, litigating cases through trial in D.C. Superior Court or federal district court, coordinating efforts with other District, state, and federal enforcement agencies, drafting and reviewing amicus filings and comments, and drafting and reviewing legislative proposals. Some of the work will involve participation in multi-state groups of assistant attorneys general that investigate, litigate, or resolve matters on a national scale. Other enforcement work will focus on local issues pertaining specifically to commercial and nonprofit activity in the District.
QUALIFICATIONS: A minimum of one year of litigation experience is required. The candidate should also have civil litigation experience, and excellent analytical, writing and litigation skills.

ELIGIBILITY: The successful candidate must have a law degree and be an active member in good standing of the bar of any jurisdiction. If not a member of the District of Columbia Bar, the candidate must be sworn into the District of Columbia Bar within 360 days of his/her initial appointment with the Office of the Attorney General for the District of Columbia.

OTHER INFORMATION: The selected candidate will be subject to a background investigation including reference checks.

HOW TO APPLY: Candidates should e-mail one PDF file which includes: 1) a cover letter (must include the vacancy number) summarizing why you are interested and the skills and abilities you possess that will enable you to succeed in this position; 2) résumé; 3) list of three references; and 4) a writing sample to OAG.RecruitmentAttorney@dc.gov by 11:59pm of the closing date indicated above, addressed to Arlyntha Love, Office of the Attorney General for the District of Columbia, 441 4th Street NW, Washington, DC 20001.

PRIORITY CONSIDERATION: Displaced Employee Priority Placement: Candidates who are eligible for the District of Columbia's Displaced Employee Program (DEP) and Agency Reemployment Priority Placement Program (ARPP) will be given priority consideration for this position if found qualified.

EMPLOYMENT BENEFITS: Selectee will be eligible for health and life insurance, annual (vacation) and sick leave and will be covered under the District of Columbia government's retirement plan. However, if selectee was previously employed in the District of Columbia's government under an appointment for which he/she was eligible for Civil Service Retirement (CSR), contributions to CSR will resume upon re-employment.

VETERANS' PREFERENCE: Applicants claiming veterans' preference must submit official proof at the time of application.

DRUG-FREE WORKPLACE: Pursuant to the requirements of the Drug-Free Workplace Act of 1998, the individual selected to fill this position will, as a condition of employment, be required to notify his/her immediate supervisor, in writing, not later than five (5) days after conviction of or a plea of guilty to a violation of any criminal drug statute occurring in the workplace.

EQUAL OPPORTUNITY EMPLOYER: All qualified candidates will receive consideration without regard to race, color, religion, national origin, sex, age, marital status, personal appearance, sexual orientation, family responsibilities, matriculation, physical handicap, genetic information or political affiliation.

NOTICE OF NON-DISCRIMINATION: In accordance with the D.C. Human Rights Act of 1977, as amended, D.C. Official Code, Section 2-1401.01 et. seq., (Act) the District of Columbia does not discriminate on the basis of actual or perceived race, color, religion, national origin, sex, age, marital status, personal appearance, sexual orientation, familial status, family responsibilities, matriculation, political affiliation, disability, genetic information, source of income, or place of residence or business. Sexual harassment is a form of sex discrimination which is also prohibited by the Act. In addition, harassment based on any of the above protected categories is prohibited by the Act. Description: GOVERNMENT OF THE DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA

OFFICE OF THE ATTORNEY GENERAL

POSITION VACANCY ANNOUNCEMENT

ANNOUNCEMENT NO: #17-038

POSITION TITLE:

TRIAL ATTORNEY

(Tuition Fraud)

POSITION GRADE & SERIES: LS-12/2 to 12/3

SALARY RANGE: $82,472 – $85,134

Salary in this range will be based on a multitude of factors including applicable rules, regulations and guidelines.

OPENING DATE: June 1, 2017

CLOSING DATE: June 22, 2017

DURATION OF APPOINTMENT: Permanent

AREA OF CONSIDERATION: Open to the Public

WORKSITE LOCATION:

Office of the Attorney General

for the District of Columbia

Public Advocacy Division

441 4th Street NW

Washington, DC 20001

NO. OF VACANCIES: One (1)

This position is in the collective bargaining unit represented by AFGE Local 1403 and you may be required to pay an agency service fee through direct payroll deduction.

DESCRIPTION OF DUTIES: The Public Integrity Unit of the Public Advocacy Division of the Office of the Attorney General for the District of Columbia is seeking a Trial Attorney to handle public school tuition fraud matters. The Public Advocacy Division investigates and litigates civil cases aimed at protecting the public interest. The Public Integrity Unit brings enforcement cases against companies and individuals that engage in unlawful commercial activity causing harm to the public or harm to the District Government itself.

The Division prosecutes a wide range of cases, including cases seeking damages or injunctive relief for violations of the antitrust, consumer protection, environmental, anti-fraud, nonprofit, and charities laws. Recent enforcement actions have addressed a wide range of public interest issues, including diversion of funding from public charter schools, misuse of District grant funds, online lending to consumers, and airline competition at Reagan National Airport.

The successful candidate will prosecute a range of public interest cases, with an emphasis on using anti-fraud authorities to combat non-resident tuition fraud in the District's public schools. Duties will include: identifying areas for investigation, conducting pre-complaint discovery using compulsory process and informal methods, analyzing complex factual and legal issues, negotiating settlements, preparing matters for litigation, litigating cases through trial in D.C. Superior Court, coordinating efforts with other District enforcement agencies, and drafting and reviewing legislative proposals.

QUALIFICATIONS: The candidate should have 2-3 years of civil litigation experience, in addition to excellent analytical, writing and litigation skills.

ELIGIBILITY: The successful candidate must have a law degree and be an active member in good standing of the bar of any jurisdiction. If not a member of the District of Columbia Bar, the candidate must be sworn into the District of Columbia Bar within 360 days of his/her initial appointment with the Office of the Attorney General for the District of Columbia.

OTHER INFORMATION: The selected candidate will be subject to a background investigation including reference checks.

HOW TO APPLY: Candidates should e-mail one PDF file which includes: 1) a cover letter (must include the vacancy number) summarizing why you are interested and the skills and abilities you possess that will enable you to succeed in this position; 2) résumé; 3) list of three references; and 4) a writing sample to OAG.RecruitmentAttorney@dc.gov by 11:59pm of the closing date indicated above, addressed to Arlyntha Love, Office of the Attorney General for the District of Columbia, 441 4th Street NW, Washington, DC 20001.

PRIORITY CONSIDERATION: Displaced Employee Priority Placement: Candidates who are eligible for the District of Columbia's Displaced Employee Program (DEP) and Agency Reemployment Priority Placement Program (ARPP) will be given priority consideration for this position if found qualified.

EMPLOYMENT BENEFITS: Selectee will be eligible for health and life insurance, annual (vacation) and sick leave and will be covered under the District of Columbia government's retirement plan. However, if selectee was previously employed in the District of Columbia's government under an appointment for which he/she was eligible for Civil Service Retirement (CSR), contributions to CSR will resume upon re-employment.

VETERANS' PREFERENCE: Applicants claiming veterans' preference must submit official proof at the time of application.

DRUG-FREE WORKPLACE: Pursuant to the requirements of the Drug-Free Workplace Act of 1998, the individual selected to fill this position will, as a condition of employment, be required to notify his/her immediate supervisor, in writing, not later than five (5) days after conviction of or a plea of guilty to a violation of any criminal drug statute occurring in the workplace.

EQUAL OPPORTUNITY EMPLOYER: All qualified candidates will receive consideration without regard to race, color, religion, national origin, sex, age, marital status, personal appearance, sexual orientation, family responsibilities, matriculation, physical handicap, genetic information or political affiliation.

NOTICE OF NON-DISCRIMINATION: In accordance with the D.C. Human Rights Act of 1977, as amended, D.C. Official Code, Section 2-1401.01 et. seq., (Act) the District of Columbia does not discriminate on the basis of actual or perceived race, color, religion, national origin, sex, age, marital status, personal appearance, sexual orientation, familial status, family responsibilities, matriculation, political affiliation, disability, genetic information, source of income, or place of residence or business. Sexual harassment is a form of sex discrimination which is also prohibited by the Act. In addition, harassment based on any of the above protected categories is prohibited by the Act. Discrimination in violation of the Act will not be tolerated. Violators will be subject to disciplinary action.

Student Debt Specialist, Law School Engagement & Advocacy Unit

Equal Justice Works (Washington, D.C.)

Position Type: Full-time

---

Geographic Preference: Mid-Atlantic (DE, MD, DC, VA)

---

Description: Equal Justice Works logo
www.equaljusticeworks.org
Student Debt Specialist, Law School Engagement & Advocacy Unit
1730 M Street, NW, Suite 800, Washington, DC 20036 Full-time

ABOUT EQUAL JUSTICE WORKS:

The mission of Equal Justice Works is to create a just society by mobilizing the next generation of lawyers committed to equal justice. Equal Justice Works is a recognized leader in the public interest law movement. Please go to www.equaljusticeworks.org to learn more about Equal Justice Works.

Equal Justice Works provides a continuum of opportunity that begins with incoming law school students and extends into later careers in the profession. From advocating for law school programs that instill public service values among students, to creating summer and postgraduate public interest jobs, to addressing the staggering educational debt that blocks lawyers from going into public service, Equal Justice Works inspires and provides opportunities for the legal community to change lives, make careers, and deliver on the promise of justice for all.

GENERAL JOB DESCRIPTION:

The Student Debt Specialist is responsible for maintaining Equal Justice Works' national leadership position on student debt issues in the legal community and providing law students, law schools, lawyers, and legal organizations with comprehensive information on overcoming student debt. The position works closely with the Student Engagement Program and is an integral part of the collaborative team working to fulfill the unit's functions. The Specialist reports directly to the Director of the Law School Engagement & Advocacy unit.

RESPONSIBILITIES:

We are looking for a dynamic and creative team member who knows how to communicate and organize effectively in the legal world. Qualified applicants will demonstrate an ability to understand the burden of student debt for law students and lawyers seeking public interest careers and a passion for providing them with comprehensive assistance.

In addition, the qualified applicant must be able to demonstrate his/her ability to:

Develop expertise in and keep up to date on student debt programs important to law students and lawyers, including Public Service Loan Forgiveness, income-driven repayment plans, and Loan Repayment Assistance Programs. In addition, the Specialist must develop and maintain a generalized knowledge of a wide variety of student debt and educational issues.

Meet the unit's strategic plan goals of growing Equal Justice Works' student debt list and providing comprehensive information on student debt to law students and lawyers. Demonstrate superior writing skills and the ability to produce and update written materials, including a comprehensive student debt e-book, the organization's Huffington Post blog, the student debt portions of the organization's website, and content for newsletters, presentations, and other communications materials.

Create and give compelling in-person and online presentations, including at law schools, conferences, legal aid organizations and via monthly online webinars.
Develop and maintain strong working relationships with the organization's key constituents and allies, including law schools, law students, legal organizations, and higher education advocacy groups.
Work with unit director to track legislative and regulatory developments regarding student debt that impact Equal Justice Works constituencies. Help advocate for the preservation and improvement of student debt relief programs and participate in regulatory actions, including notice and comment and negotiated rulemaking, as necessary.
Capture and analyze data on the program's progress in Equal Justice Works' CRM database.
Perform other duties as needed.

QUALIFICATIONS:

Bachelor's degree plus two to three years' relevant working experience.
Strong public speaking, communication and writing skills.
Demonstrated project management, problem solving, and analytical skills.
Strong computer skills including knowledge of Microsoft Office applications (e.g. Excel, Outlook, PowerPoint and Word). Ability to work with current technology and to adapt to new technology.
Strong interpersonal and collaborative skills.
Willingness to travel.
Ability to multi-task.
Proven ability to take individual initiative and responsibility for assignments.
J.D. a plus.
Experience with state or federal advocacy campaigns a plus.
State or federal legislative experience a plus.

SALARY AND BENEFITS:

Comprehensive and generous benefits package commensurate with education and experience, including loan repayment assistance, full healthcare coverage, dental and 403(b) 4% match, employer sponsored disability insurance program, monthly transportation stipend, and 12 holidays, 14 days of vacation, 2 personal days, and 10 days of sick leave.
Professional development funds available to support staff in achieving career objectives. Salary Range: $40-48K

TO APPLY:

Applicants should send a one-page resume, three references, and cover letter describing in detail their experience, qualifications and why they would be a good fit. Please note: Phone calls and direct emails will not be accepted.

EQUAL JUSTICE WORKS is an equal opportunity employer and does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, religion, national origin, gender identity, age, marital status, personal appearance, sexual orientation, family responsibilities, physical or mental handicap, matriculation, or political affiliation.

Policy Researcher
ACLU of Ohio (Cleveland)

Position Type: Full-time

Geographic Preference: Midwest (KY, WV, OH, IN, MI, IL, MO, IA, MN, WI)

Description: Full-Time One-Year Policy Researcher

Position Available in Either Cleveland or Columbus
April 2017

For more than 93 years, the American Civil Liberties Union has been at the forefront of every major battle for civil liberties and social justice in this country. Principled and nonpartisan, the ACLU brings together activists from all walks of life in the advancement of equality, fairness, and freedom, especially for the most vulnerable in our society.

The ACLU of Ohio seeks a motivated professional to help us advance this mission.

The Policy Researcher supports the ACLU of Ohio’s policy strategy through research, analysis, and reporting.

Ideal candidates will have outstanding verbal and written communication skills, an outgoing personality, and an ability to travel.

This is an exciting opportunity to build a career in the service of social justice with a dynamic nonprofit organization. ACLU of Ohio staff are committed to equality, respectful of diversity, and are willing to go above and beyond to get the job done.

Over the years staff members have found the ACLU to be an accommodating, inspiring and fun place to work. Although the environment is informal—staff members wear jeans to work a good deal of the time—we are an activist, hard-working team involved in the life of the community.

To apply, please email a resume and cover letter to contact@acluohio.org. In your cover letter, include the phrase “Policy Researcher.”

EEO/AA STATEMENT

The American Civil Liberties Union of Ohio is committed to nondiscrimination, equal opportunity and affirmative action in its employment, delivery of legal and educational services, and relationships with vendors and contractors. The organization will not tolerate discrimination with regard to race, color, national origin, gender, religion, age, disability, sexual orientation, gender identity, gender expression, or marital or family status.

The ACLU of Ohio acts affirmatively to meet both the spirit and the letter of applicable policies and laws and to value and respect the diverse population it serves in Ohio.

Law Clerk

The Supreme Court of Minnesota (Saint Paul, Minnesota)

Position Type: Full-time
Geographic Preference: Midwest (KY, WV, OH, IN, MI, IL, MO, IA, MN, WI)
Description: STATE OF MINNESOTA APPELLATE COURTS

TO APPLICANTS SEEKING A POSITION AS A LAW CLERK FOR THE MINNESOTA COURT OF APPEALS FOR THE 2018-2019 TERM

COURT OF APPEALS

The Minnesota Court of Appeals reviews cases appealed from district courts and administrative agencies. Nineteen judges serve on the Court of Appeals, which is divided into six rotating panels of three judges each, hearing oral arguments throughout the year. The court is located in the Minnesota Judicial Center in St. Paul, Minnesota.

It is anticipated that approximately 25-30 positions will be open for the term of August 2018 through August 2019.

COURT OF APPEALS LAW CLERK DUTIES: The primary duties of a law clerk are to analyze and research cases on appeal. A law clerk's typical responsibilities include close review of the record and transcripts from the district court, evaluating conflicting briefs, supplementing the legal research submitted in the briefs, assisting the judge in accurately synthesizing the facts and the law through preparation of bench memoranda and providing further assistance in opinion preparation, and cite-checking opinions.

QUALIFICATIONS: The minimum academic requirement for application is enrollment as a second-year law student; graduation from an accredited law school is required to begin employment. Professional skills and academic record are both considered. Strong writing and research skills are essential. Experience on a law review or law journal is preferred. The judges of the court will select law clerks after reviewing applications and conducting interviews.

SALARY AND BENEFITS: Anticipated salary for 2018-2019 term is $57,942 per year, plus excellent State of Minnesota benefits package, which includes low-cost medical, dental, and life insurance; retirement savings plan; and low-cost parking or mass-transit subsidy. Visit <http://mn.gov/mmb/segip/> for current benefit information.

Harrity & Harrity, LLP (Fairfax, VA)

Position Type: Full-time
Geographic Preference: Mid-Atlantic (DE, MD, DC, VA)
Description: Harrity & Harrity is hiring for its successful training program for new patent attorneys who are looking for an opportunity to get their foot in the door at a patent law firm and prove that they have what it takes to be a superstar patent associate. Our patent associate trainee program provides in-depth training in patent application drafting with the potential to become a full-time associate with our firm. The patent associate trainee program is a temporary position with our firm for about six (6) months, during which time, you will be trained in the skills that are needed to prepare high quality patent applications for leading technology companies.  To qualify for this position, you MUST be able to write well. Also, you MUST have a J.D., have passed a bar or are awaiting bar results, and have either a B.S. or M.S. in electrical engineering, computer science, mechanical engineering, or physics. We will consider other similar technical degree backgrounds. Being registered to practice before the USPTO is a plus. During the training program you will be paid a salary, and your lodging will be paid for as well.  Should you successfully complete the training program, there is a strong possibility that you would be offered a full-time associate position with our firm. First year full-time associates at Harrity & Harrity earn higher salaries than their peers at other patent firms the salary potential, for your first full year of employment as a full-time professional, is $200K+.  To apply for this position, submit a resume and a cover letter explaining why you would be a good candidate for the program to pat@harrityllp.com .
